

Charter & Bye-laws of The Royal Horticultural Society

Royal Charter granted 10 November 1987
(Original Royal Charter 1809)

Bye-laws approved at the Annual General Meeting on 30 June 2005
(as amended on 1 July 2008)

THE ROYAL HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY
VINCENT SQUARE LONDON
SW1P 2PE

Reg. Charity No 222879 / SC038262

Charter of The Royal Horticultural Society

ELIZABETH THE SECOND by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland and of Our other Realms and Territories Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith:

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME, GREETING!

WHEREAS by a Royal Charter dated the seventeenth day of April One thousand eight hundred and nine there was constituted a body corporate and politic by the name of the Horticultural Society of London with perpetual succession and with power to sue and be sued by the said name and to use a Common Seal:

AND WHEREAS by a new Charter dated the eighth day of May One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, and by a Supplemental Charter dated the fourteenth day of November One thousand eight hundred and ninety-nine and a new Charter dated the ninth day of July One thousand nine hundred and twenty-eight (hereinafter referred to as "the 1928 Charter"), the Horticultural Society of London was re-incorporated by the name of the Royal Horticultural Society (hereinafter referred to as "the 1928 Society") and various alterations and improvements were made in the powers of the 1928 Society:

AND WHEREAS the 1928 Society has by an humble Petition represented unto Us that the grant of a Supplemental Charter is desirable for the purpose of enabling the objects of the Society to be carried out with greater efficiency and to greater advantage, and application has been made by the 1928 Society for a Supplemental Charter accordingly:

AND WHEREAS, to further the same purpose, the Council of the 1928 Society has made bye-laws which they have submitted with the aforesaid Petition, and which they desire, in the event that We are graciously pleased to accede to the Petition and to grant a Supplemental Charter, should constitute the new bye-laws of the Society and should come into operation on such date or dates as shall enable such grant to be best given effect:

NOW KNOW YE that We, having taken the said Petition into Our Royal Consideration, of Our especial grace, certain knowledge and mere motion have granted and ordained, and by these Presents for Us, Our Heirs and Successors, do grant and ordain as follows:-

I Without prejudice to anything done or suffered thereunder the 1928 Charter shall be and is hereby revoked.

II The President, Vice-Presidents and Treasurer, and their successors, and all other persons being now or immediately before the grant of this Our Supplemental Charter Fellows or Member of the 1928 Society and such others as from time to time shall be admitted in accordance with the bye-laws of the Society (hereinafter referred to as "the bye-laws") to membership of the Society in the future, We do hereby constitute and declare to be and remain one body politic and corporate by the name of "The Royal Horticultural Society" (herein referred to as "the Society") with perpetual succession and a Common Seal, with power from time to time to alter the same, and with power to hold, deal with and dispose of all personal property and lands, tenements and hereditaments now or immediately before the grant of this Our Supplemental Charter vested in or belonging to the 1928 Society, and to acquire, hold, deal with, and dispose of other personal property, lands, tenements and hereditaments of whatsoever value and wheresoever situate and with power by the name aforesaid to sue and to be sued and to act and do in all things in as ample manner and form as any other body politic or corporate may or can act and do.

III The objects of the Society are the encouragement and improvement of the science, art and practice of horticulture in all its branches.

IV The Fellows or Members of the 1928 Society and all persons admitted to membership of the Society in the future shall herein be known collectively and individually as "Members" and "Member" respectively, and the Society shall consist of Members and any other classes and designations of persons which may from time to time be prescribed by the bye-laws.

V The government of the Society, and of its business and affairs, shall be vested in a Council consisting of not less than twelve and not more than nineteen persons all being Members.

VI The officers of the Society shall be a President, one or more Vice-Presidents and a Treasurer, and such other officers as may from time to time be prescribed by the bye-laws. The President and the Treasurer shall be ex-officio members of the Council and the President shall be the Chairman of the Council.

VII The persons (including the President and the Treasurer) who were immediately before the grant of this Our Supplemental Charter members of the Council of the 1928 Society shall be the original members of the Council of the Society and shall hold office until the Annual General Meeting of the Society in the year 1988.

Subject to the provisions of Article V hereof, the Council shall have power to co-opt any Member who has been a Member for at least three years to serve as a member of the Council: provided that the number of co-opted members shall not exceed two at any time. A co-opted member of the Council shall retire at the Annual General Meeting following his or her co-option.

Subject to the provisions of Article V hereof, at the Annual General Meeting in the year 1988, and at the Annual General Meeting in every succeeding year, at least three of the members of the Council (in addition to any co-opted members) shall retire from office, and the places or place of them or any of them together with any other vacancies shall or may be filled by the election of members at the Annual General Meeting, but no person shall be capable of being so elected unless he shall be a Member and shall satisfy such requirements as may from time to time be prescribed by the bye-laws.

The retiring members of the Council in the year 1988 and in each succeeding year shall be those (other than the President and the Treasurer for the time being) who shall have been or who shall have been deemed to have been longest in office since their election or (as the case may be) last re-election (whether as members of the Council of the 1928 Society or as members of the Council of the Society but excluding any term of office as a co-opted member).

Subject as aforesaid the number of members of the Council to retire and to be elected respectively at each or any Annual General Meeting shall be such as may from time to time be prescribed by the bye-laws.

VIII The persons who immediately before the grant of this Our Supplement Charter filled offices of President, Vice-President and Treasurer of the 1928 Society shall hold the same offices in the Society until the Annual General Meeting in the year 1988.

At that Meeting, and at the Annual General Meeting in each succeeding year, a President and a Treasurer shall be elected by the meeting to hold office until the ensuing Annual General Meeting, the holders of each of those offices being in all cases eligible for re-election unless disqualified under the bye-laws.

The Council shall have power from time to time to appoint such persons (not being disqualified under the bye-laws) as Vice-Presidents as it shall think fit. Any person so appointed shall retire at the Annual General Meeting following his or her appointment but shall be eligible for re-appointment, unless disqualified under the bye-laws for the time being in force.

IX The Council shall have power from time to time to make bye-laws for the Society, and from time to time to revoke, add to or amend any bye-laws so made (including the first bye-laws of the Society referred to in Article XII of this Our Supplemental Charter):

Provided always that:

- (a) No such bye-law made after the grant of this Our Supplemental Charter, nor any such revocation, addition or amendment, shall take effect unless and until the same shall have been submitted to and sanctioned (either with or without any modification) by a majority of a meeting of the members duly convened, it being competent for any Member present and entitled to vote at such meeting to propose any such modification as aforesaid on giving such notice (if any) thereof as may from time to time be prescribed by the bye-laws.
- (b) The notice convening such meeting shall contain a notification that such new bye-law, or such revocation, addition or amendment, will be taken into consideration at such meeting.
- (c) The said bye-laws shall comply with the provisions and directions of these Presents, and shall not in any way be repugnant thereto or to the laws and statutes of this Realm.

X Subject as aforesaid the bye-laws may provide with respect to all or any of the following matters (namely):-

- (a) The carrying out of any of the objects of the Society.
- (b) The qualifications, election, removal, classification, designation, rights and privileges, and duties and obligations of Members of the Society and of such other classes and designations of persons as may from time to time have been prescribed by bye-laws pursuant to Article IV hereof, and the conditions applicable to Membership and to any such other classes and designations as aforesaid including the contributions (if any) to be paid to the funds of the Society.
- (c) The affiliation to the Society of other bodies and societies which in the opinion of the Council have objects similar to the objects of the Society and the voting and other rights and privileges of any such affiliated body or society and the condition attaching to any such affiliation.

- (d) The number, qualifications, election, appointment, removal, continuance in office, eligibility for re-election, and duties of the members of the Council and the mode of filling casual vacancies.
- (e) The qualifications, election, appointment, removal, dismissal and remuneration of the officers of the Society, and the mode of filling casual vacancies.
- (f) The summoning and holding of, and the proceedings at, and the quorum of, meetings of the Society, including the voting at such meetings, and the rights and duties of Members present thereat.
- (g) The summoning and holding of, and the proceedings at, and the quorum of, meetings of the Council, and its business, powers and duties.
- (h) The appointment of Committees of the Council or of the Society for such purposes as may from time to time be considered desirable for or in connection with the management of any part of the affairs of the Society, or the promotion or execution of any of its objects.
- (i) The investment and management of the funds and property and the conduct of the business and affairs of the Society.
- (j) The publication of or the property or copyright in any papers works, lectures or writings communicated to or delivered or written at the request of the Society.
- (k) Any matters connected with or relating to the affairs, government, funds or property of the Society.

XI The Society may by resolution passed by not less than two-thirds of the Members present in person or by proxy and voting at a General Meeting of the Society specially convened for the purpose with at least twenty-one days' notice in writing revoke, amend or add to any of the provisions of this Our Supplemental Charter and such revocation, amendment or addition shall when allowed by Us, Our Heirs or Successors in Council become effectual and this Our Supplemental Charter shall thenceforth continue to operate as if it had originally been granted and made accordingly. This Article shall apply to this Our Supplemental Charter as revoked, amended or added to in the manner aforesaid: Provided that no amendment shall be made which shall cause the Society to cease to be a charity in law.

XII The first bye-laws of the Society shall be those which have been submitted with the aforesaid Petition, and duly certified by the Clerk of Our Most Honourable Privy Council. Such certificate may make provision in regard to the coming into force of the said first bye-laws or any of them.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent.

WITNESS Ourselves at Westminster the tenth day of November in the thirty-sixth year of Our Reign.

BY WARRANT UNDER THE QUEEN'S SIGN MANUAL

10 November 1987

Bye-laws of The Royal Horticultural Society

Index
	Bye-law		Bye-law
Annual General Meeting	10	Membership	2
adjournment	12.20	application for	2.2
chairman	12.4	benefits, rights and minutes	12.21	obligations	2.4 to 2.6
notice of	10.2	eligibility & categories
objections	12.17	of membership	2.1
proceedings	12	honorary membership	2.13
proxy voting	12.14 to	termination of	2.10 to 2.12
	12.16	voting rights	2.7 to 2.9
quorum	12.2 to 12.3	Notices	21
validity	12.22	Payment of Council
voting	12.5 to 12.16	Members	17
	& 12.18	President	5
Application to become		casual vacancy	5.5 to 5.6
a member	2.2	term of office	5.7
Auditors	15	election	5.1 to 5.4 & 7
Benefits, rights and		eligibility for election	5.2 to 5.3
obligations of members	2.4 to 2.6	termination of office	5.8
Branches	3	unfilled vacancy	5.5
Bye-laws – alteration of	22	Property of the Society	16
Council		Regional or International conduct of business	4.7 to 4.14	Branches	3
constitution and role	4.1 to 4.2	Regulations	20
delegation by Council	4.4 to 4.6	Seal	19
powers of Council	4.3	Special General Meeting	11
Council Members	6	adjournment	12.20
casual vacancy	6.7 to 6.8	chairman	12.4
term of office	6.9	minutes	12.21
co-opted members	8	notice of	11.2
election and appoint-		objections	12.17
ment of ordinary	6, 6.3 to	proceedings	12
members of Council	6.5 & 7	proxy voting	12.14 to 12.16
eligibility	6.3 to 6.4	quorum	12.2 to 12.3
payment of	17	validity	12.22
termination of office	6.10	voting	12.5 to 12.6
vacancies	6.2 & 6.7		& 12.18
Definitions	23	Specialist Groups	3
Financial Statements		Subscriptions	2.2 to 2.3
and Accounting	18	Termination of Membership	2.10 to 2.12
Governance of the		Treasurer	5
Society	4	casual vacancy	5.5
Honorary Members	2.13	term of office	5.7
Implementation	1	election	5.1 to 5.4 & 7
Member Resolutions	13	eligibility for election	5.2 & 5.3
Member Statements	14	termination of office	5.8
		unfilled vacancy	5.5
		Vice Presidents	9
		Voting Rights	2.7 to 2.9

1 Implementation

- 1.1 All the existing Bye-laws of the RHS are now revoked and replaced with these Bye-laws with effect from 1 July 2005 (as amended on 1 July 2008).

2 Membership

Eligibility and categories of membership

- 2.1 Membership of the Society is open to any individual and any corporate body, association or organisation (hereafter referred to as a member organisation) interested in horticulture. Council shall assign members of the Society to different categories of membership as it may agree in Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1.

Application to become a member of the Society and subscriptions

- 2.2 Council shall from time to time specify the method by which an application for membership should be made and the fees and subscriptions that each category of membership shall be required to pay to become and continue as a member of the Society. Council may within 60 days of receipt of an application for membership reject that application for such reason as it may see fit and shall notify the applicant accordingly.
- 2.3 Council may remit, waive or accept late payment of the whole or any part of any subscription for any reason it considers to be in the interest of the Society.

Benefits, rights and obligations of membership

- 2.4 Every individual member and member organisation shall be entitled to the membership benefits and rights provided in these Bye-laws or agreed from time to time by Council provided that they are not in arrears with the payment of their subscription.
- 2.5 A member shall, when acting in their capacity as a member, act in the interests of the Society and in a manner that contributes to the achievement of the objectives of the Society. Members should be prepared to abide by decisions that are taken fairly and within the rules of the Society by the membership and by Council.
- 2.6 A member may not use for personal or commercial benefit any trademark or logo of the Society or any statement or initials implying membership of the Society, unless specifically authorised by Council.

Voting rights

- 2.7 Subject to the provisions of Bye-law 2.8, every individual member over the age of 18 and all member organisations are entitled to one vote at any meeting of the Society, an election or poll. A membership organisation is required to appoint an individual to represent it and to vote on its behalf and to notify The Secretary at the RHS Office of the name of this individual or alternate in the manner required by Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1.
- 2.8 In the case of an election or poll conducted by postal and/or electronic ballot, only those members eligible to vote on the date that the voting papers are issued or an invitation to vote electronically is offered shall be entitled to vote.
- 2.9 Any vote cast by an individual member or membership organisation whose application for membership is subsequently rejected shall remain valid as shall any vote cast by a member at an election or poll conducted by postal and/or electronic ballot who ceases to be a member of the Society before the close of voting.

Termination of membership

- 2.10 The membership of an individual or member organisation shall be terminated
- (a) on receipt of notification of the death of an individual member or a membership organisation ceasing to exist;
 - (b) on receipt of a written notice of resignation from the member;
 - (c) if payment of any membership subscription has not been received within 90 days of the due date;
 - (d) if after considering a complaint concerning the conduct of an individual member or member organisation under Bye-law 2.11 Council is of the view that membership should be terminated.
- 2.11 Council shall consider any complaint concerning the conduct of an individual member or member organisation in accordance with Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1. The Regulations shall provide that complaints must be made in writing and signed by at least ten members of the Society or two members of Council and shall be investigated by a committee appointed by Council if Council decides that there is a case to be heard. Those making the complaint and the member against whom the complaint relates shall have a right to be heard by the investigating committee before the committee reaches its conclusions and makes recommendations to Council on any action that should be taken. All parties appearing before the investigating committee may elect to be accompanied by another person of their choice. The decision of Council on a complaint shall be final.
- 2.12 A member shall cease to be entitled to the benefits and rights of membership on the day following termination of their membership under Bye-law 2.10 (a), (b) or (d) (see also Bye-law 2.4). Such a member shall remain liable for any arrears of subscription or other sums due from them and shall not be entitled to the return of any subscription or other fees already paid.

Honorary Members

- 2.13 Individuals who are granted the Society's Associateship of Honour or Honorary Fellowship shall be granted membership of the Society without the need to pay a subscription for so long as they hold the title. Such individuals shall be entitled to the same benefits and rights and subject to the same obligations of membership as any other member of the Society.

3 Regional or International Branches and Specialist Groups

- 3.1 Council may establish, maintain and dissolve groups of members based on regions, countries or other areas, or specialist interests. These groups shall be constituted and their affairs conducted in accordance with Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1.

4 Governance of the Society

- 4.1 The governance of the Society shall be vested in Council. Council shall consist of the President, Treasurer, 15 ordinary members and up to two co-opted members. The members of Council shall act as the trustees of the RHS.
- 4.2 The principal role of Council is to agree the future direction of the Society; the investment and disposal of Society assets; and the strategic management and performance of the Society.

Powers of Council

- 4.3 Council has power to undertake all lawful things as are necessary to achieve the objects of the Society including, but not limited to, power:

- (a) to raise funds;
- (b) to buy, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any property and to maintain and equip it for use;
- (c) subject to any consents required by law, to sell, lease, lend, or dispose of all or any part of the property of the Society;
- (d) subject to any consents required by law, to borrow money and charge all or any part of the property belonging to the Society as security for the repayment of the money borrowed;
- (e) to co-operate and undertake joint ventures with other charities, voluntary bodies, organisations and statutory authorities and to exchange information and advice with them;
- (f) to set aside income as a reserve against future expenditure in accordance with a written policy about reserves;
- (g) to deposit or invest funds, employ a professional fund manager, and arrange for the investments or other property of the Society to be held in the name of a nominee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as the trustees of a trust are permitted to do by the Trustee Act 2000 or any subsequent legislation;
- (h) to invest in any trading company established by the Society for the purpose of raising funds or income to further the charitable objectives of the Society;
- (i) to employ and remunerate staff to carry out the work of the Society including the provision of insurance and/or contribution to a pension scheme for any employee;
- (j) to make any reasonable and proper payments to former employees of the Society or their families and dependants;
- (k) to provide an indemnity and obtain insurance for any liability, loss or expenditure incurred by any current or former member of staff, or voluntary worker to cover negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to their work for the Society excluding:
 - fines;
 - the costs of unsuccessfully defending criminal prosecutions for offences arising out of fraud, dishonesty or wilful or reckless misconduct by any individual;
 - liabilities to the Society that result from conduct that the individual knew or must have been assumed to know was not in the best interests of the Society;
- (l) in accordance with an Order of the Commissioners granted under Section 26 of the Charities Act 1993 on 20 April 2005, to provide an indemnity and obtain insurance for any liability, loss or expenditure incurred by any member of Council or member of a committee to which Council delegates decision-making powers to cover negligence, default, breach of duty or breach of trust in relation to their work for the Society – subject to the exclusions set out in Bye-law 4.3(k);
- (m) to authorise examinations to be held and either alone or jointly with other organisations grant diplomas or certificates on the results of such examinations;
- (n) to make regulations under Bye-law 20.1.

Delegation

- 4.4 Council may, subject to applicable laws, delegate any of its powers or functions to a committee of three or more individuals, including a power for that committee to further delegate to a sub-committee. For the purposes of these Bye-laws, any sub-committee exercising powers or functions on behalf of Council shall be treated the same as any committee. Council may also establish committees to provide it with advice and/or assistance in fulfilling the objectives of the Society.

- 4.5 A committee taking decisions on behalf of Council may include members who are not members of Council, but the quorum for the committee shall require a majority of those present to be members of Council. Such a committee must act within the policies, budget or any other guidance set by Council and report to Council on its decisions and activities.
- 4.6 Council and any decision-taking committee may also delegate the implementation of its decisions to staff employed by the Society or to another individual, company or organisation contracted by the Society to undertake activities or provide services on its behalf. Council shall be responsible for the appointment and dismissal of the Director General and any executive director. Responsibility for the appointment, direction and dismissal of all other staff employed by the Society shall be delegated to the Director General.

Conduct of Business by Council

- 4.7 Council shall meet at least twice each calendar year at such place, day and time as Council may decide. The President, Vice Chairman of Council or any three members of Council may call an additional meeting of Council at any time. The quorum for all meetings of Council shall be six or one third of the members of Council serving at the relevant time whichever is the greater.
- 4.8 Except where required by law, meetings of Council and those committees to which Council delegates decision making may be conducted wholly or in part by electronic means including by video conference, an internet video facility or telephone conference. At least one meeting of Council shall be held each year in person.
- 4.9 The President shall so long as he is eligible to serve on Council be the Chairman of Council.
- 4.10 Council may appoint one of its members to act as Vice Chairman for the year ending at the close of the Society's AGM. In the event that neither the President nor Vice Chairman is present at a meeting of Council, another member of Council present shall be appointed as Chairman for that meeting.
- 4.11 The decision of the majority of members voting at a meeting of Council shall be treated as the decision of Council except where a larger majority is required by law or under these Bye-laws. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of Council may use a second or casting vote.
- 4.12 A resolution signed in writing by all members of Council or a committee to which Council has delegated decision-making powers shall be treated as if it had been agreed at a meeting of Council or the committee concerned.
- 4.13 All decisions of Council and committees to which decision-making powers are delegated shall be recorded in one or more minute books kept for the purpose.
- 4.14 Council shall make Regulations under Bye-law 20.1 to regulate the conduct of its business.

5 The President and Treasurer

Eligibility and election

- 5.1 The President and Treasurer of the Society shall be elected annually at the Annual General Meeting (AGM) by the members of the Society and serve as ex-officio members of Council. No individual elected as President or Treasurer may serve for more than five elected terms of office unless the members agree to elect the same individual for up to a maximum of two further terms. No individual may serve as President and Treasurer at the same time.

- 5.2 The election of the President and Treasurer shall be conducted in accordance with Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1. However, those seeking election to the office of President and Treasurer must:
- (a) be an individual member of the Society at the date of nomination, the date of election and throughout their term of office;
 - (b) be aged over 18 at the date of the AGM at which the election shall take place;
 - (c) not be disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision;
 - (d) be proposed, seconded and supported by a total of eight members;
 - (e) deliver a nomination paper to The Secretary at the RHS Office in the form prescribed by the Regulations for the election by 1 March preceding an AGM (or last working day before this date).
- 5.3 Council may make such enquiries as it deems necessary of those seeking election to the offices of President and Treasurer to ensure eligibility and in order that it may make a recommendation to the members at any contested election as to which of the candidates it considers shall best serve the interests of the Society.
- 5.4 Where there are two or more candidates nominated for election as President or Treasurer there shall be a contested election for that office. If only one candidate is nominated, that candidate shall be declared elected unopposed.
- Vacancy not filled at an election
- 5.5 In the event of a vacancy for the President or Treasurer not being filled at an election, a casual vacancy shall be deemed to have arisen.
- Filling of a casual vacancy
- 5.6 If a casual vacancy for the office of President or Treasurer arises for any reason, Council shall appoint an individual member of the Society to fill that vacancy until the end of the next AGM. A member appointed to serve as President or Treasurer must also be over age 18; remain a member throughout their term of office; and not be disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision.
- Term of office
- 5.7 A newly elected President and Treasurer shall take office from the end of the AGM at which they are declared elected. The President and Treasurer shall hold office until the end of the AGM in the year following their election.
- Termination of office
- 5.8 The President and Treasurer shall cease to hold office if any of the provisions of Bye-law 6.10 (a)–(d) and (g)–(k) apply.

6 Election and Appointment of Ordinary Members of Council

- 6.1 Ordinary members of Council shall be elected at the AGM by the members of the Society.
- Vacancies to be filled
- 6.2 Each year at least three ordinary members of Council shall retire from office at the close of the AGM and the resulting vacancies filled by election. Any election required to fill a casual vacancy for an ordinary member of Council shall also take place at an AGM.

Eligibility and Election

- 6.3 The election of ordinary members of Council shall be conducted in accordance with Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1. However, those seeking election as an ordinary member of Council must:
- (a) have been an individual member of the Society for three years prior to the date of nomination and remain a member at the date of nomination, the date of election and throughout their term of office;
 - (b) be aged over 18 at the date of the AGM at which the election shall take place;
 - (c) not have already completed 10 years service as a member of Council (whether as a result of co-option, appointment, election as an ordinary member of Council or as serving as President or Treasurer) unless Council has recommended that the individual be made eligible to serve for one further term of up to five years maximum;
 - (d) not be disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision;
 - (e) be proposed, seconded and supported by a total of eight members;
 - (f) deliver a nomination paper to The Secretary at the RHS Office in the form prescribed by the Regulations for the election made under Bye-law 20.1 by 1 March preceding an AGM (or last working day before this date).
- 6.4 Council may make such enquiries as it deems necessary of those seeking election as an ordinary member of Council to ensure eligibility and in order that it may make a recommendation to the members at any contested election as to which of the candidates it considers shall best serve the interests of the Society.
- 6.5 Where the number of candidates exceeds the number of vacancies there shall be a contested election. Where the number of candidates is the same or less than the number of vacancies, all candidates shall be deemed elected unopposed.

Vacancy not filled at an election

- 6.6 In the event of one or more vacancies not being filled at an election or a member ceasing to hold office for any reason other than the end of their elected term, a casual vacancy shall be deemed to exist.

Filling of a casual vacancy

- 6.7 If a casual vacancy for a member of Council arises for any reason, Council shall appoint an individual member of the Society to fill that vacancy until the end of the next AGM when the vacancy shall then be filled by election. However, if the vacancy arises between 1 February and the date of the AGM in the same year and the position that is vacant is not due to be filled by election at that Meeting, Council may fill the vacancy by appointment until the end of the AGM in the following year.
- 6.8 A member of the Society appointed to Council under Bye-law 6.7 must have been a member of the Society for at least three years prior to the date of appointment, remain a member throughout their period of office, be aged over 18 and not be disqualified as acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision.

Term of office

- 6.9 Ordinary members of Council shall serve for a five-year term expiring at the end of the AGM in the fifth year. However, any member elected to fill a casual vacancy on Council shall serve until the end of the AGM in the year the originally elected office holder would have retired (known as the remaining term of office). A newly elected member of Council shall take office from the end of the AGM at which they are declared elected.

Termination of membership of an ordinary member of Council

- 6.10 An ordinary member of Council shall cease to hold office:
- (a) at the end of their elected term of office;
 - (b) immediately they become disqualified from acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision;
 - (c) immediately they cease to be a member of the Society;
 - (d) immediately on death;
 - (e) immediately on election or appointment to the office of President or Treasurer of the Society, save that they shall then serve as an ex-officio member of Council while holding either one of those offices;
 - (f) at the date of an AGM if they have completed a total of 10 years service as a member of Council (whether as a result of co-option, appointment, election as an ordinary member or as President or Treasurer) irrespective of whether they were elected or appointed to serve for a longer period of time. This Bye-law shall not prevent an individual elected as President or Treasurer from being re-elected to complete the maximum number of terms of office for that role as set out at Bye-law 5.1. In addition, where Council considers it is in the interests of the Society it may make an individual who has already completed a maximum of 10 years service as a member of Council eligible to seek re-election for one further term of office up to a maximum period of five years. If a member made eligible to seek re-election under this Bye-law is not re-elected or is re-elected for a period of less than five further years, they shall not be eligible to seek re-election to Council for a further term of office in any circumstances;
 - (g) immediately upon receipt of their resignation;
 - (h) if they are absent from all meetings of Council or any other decision-making committee of the Society held within a period of six months and Council resolves that their office be vacated;
 - (i) if they become incapable by reason of mental disorder, illness or injury of managing their own affairs;
 - (j) if they become a paid employee of the Society;
 - (k) if at least two thirds of the members of Council resolve that an individual has conducted themselves in a manner unworthy of the character of the Society or prejudicial to its interests, provided that the individual concerned or their representative shall first have an opportunity to address Council before such a decision is taken.

7 General Provisions relating to the election of President, Treasurer and ordinary members of Council

- 7.1 Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1 for the conduct of elections to the office of President and Treasurer and for ordinary members of Council shall provide for:
- (a) A notice of election to be published in the Society's journal before 31 December of the year prior to the AGM including details of the known vacancies to be filled by election the following year, the requirements for nomination and the closing date for nominations;

- (b) A notice of persons validly nominated for election to be issued to all members with the Notice of the AGM;
 - (c) Voting to be conducted by postal and/or electronic ballot of members as Council may decide;
 - (d) The arrangements for members, if they so wish, to appoint the President to act as their proxy at elections for ordinary members of Council;
 - (e) The declaration of the result of the election at the AGM.
- 7.2 The accidental failure to issue any document relating to the election or the non-receipt of a ballot document shall not invalidate any postal and/or electronic ballot or the result of any election declared following that ballot.

8 Co-opted Members of Council

- 8.1 Council may co-opt up to two individual members of the Society to serve on Council. The term of office of a co-opted member of Council shall be from the date of appointment until the end of the AGM following appointment. No individual may be co-opted for more than two terms of office.
- 8.2 To be considered eligible for co-option to Council, an individual member of the Society must have been a member of the Society for at least three years prior to the date of co-option; remain a member throughout their period of office; be aged over 18; not have already served on Council for 10 years in any capacity; and not be disqualified as acting as a charity trustee by virtue of section 72 of the Charities Act 1993 or any statutory re-enactment or modification of that provision.
- 8.3 The term of office of a co-opted member of Council shall cease if any of the provisions at Bye-law 6.10 (b)–(e) and (g)–(k) apply.
- 8.4 An individual who completes their term of office as a co-opted member of Council at an AGM is eligible for election at that meeting as an ordinary member of Council provided that they have not already served as a member of Council in any capacity for a total period of 10 years.

9 Vice Presidents

- 9.1 Council may appoint any individual member of the Society to serve as a Vice President of the RHS. This office is honorary and all office holders shall retire at the next following AGM. An individual who has retired as a Vice President may be re-appointed by Council for a further term of office. There is no restriction on the number of occasions on which a Vice President may be re-appointed.
- 9.2 Council may remove a Vice President from office at any time if it considers that they have conducted themselves in an inappropriate manner, contrary to the interests and/or objects of the Society.
- 9.3 The names of the Society's Vice Presidents shall be reported annually to the membership at the AGM.

10 Annual General Meeting (AGM)

- 10.1 An Annual General Meeting of the members of the Society shall be held every year in the fifth or sixth month following the end of the Society's financial year on a day and at a time and place to be decided by Council.

Notice

- 10.2 The Secretary shall provide every member with at least 21 clear days' notice of the day, time and place of the AGM together with details of the business to be conducted.
- 10.3 The business to be dealt with at an AGM shall include:

Approval of the minutes of the previous General Meeting;
 Receipt and consideration of Council's report for the year (the trustees' report) and the annual financial statements of account;
 Declaration of the results of election to the office of President and Treasurer and of the election of ordinary members of Council;
 Appointment of the Society's auditors;
 Receipt of the names of the Society's Vice Presidents for the following year;
 Member resolutions;
 Any other business relating to the affairs of the Society.

- 10.4 The Notice of Meeting shall include Council's direction as to the method of voting for every item of business where a vote is necessary (see Bye-law 12.5).

11 Special General Meetings

- 11.1 A Special General Meeting of members may be called by Council at any time and must be called within 60 days of receipt by The Secretary at the RHS Office of a requisition signed by not less than 500 members. The requisition may comprise a number of separate documents, but the name and membership number of each signatory must be shown against each signature. The requisition must also specify the business to be transacted.
- 11.2 The Secretary shall provide every member with at least 21 clear days' notice of the day, time and place of any Special General Meeting together with details of the business to be conducted. No other business may be dealt with other than that contained in the Notice of the Meeting.
- 11.3 The Notice of Meeting shall include Council's direction as to the method of voting where a vote is necessary (see Bye-law 12.5).

12 Proceedings at Annual General and Special General Meetings

Attendance

- 12.1 Only individual members of the Society, or their appointed proxy, and the representatives of member organisations are entitled to attend a General Meeting unless the President, or Chairman where different, agrees that some other person may attend.

Quorum

- 12.2 No business may be conducted at a General Meeting unless a quorum of 100 members is present.
- 12.3 If a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time the meeting is due to start or if a quorum ceases to exist during a meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to a place, day and time determined by the Chairman (see Bye-law 12.20). At a meeting reconvened following an adjournment due to the absence of a quorum, the quorum shall be the number of members present.

Chairman

- 12.4 General Meetings shall be chaired by the President or, in his or her absence, the Vice Chairman of Council. If neither the President nor Vice Chairman is present, the meeting shall appoint another member of Council present at the meeting to act as Chairman.

Voting

- 12.5 Except for the election of the President, Treasurer and ordinary members of Council or as may be required by the Charter for any other matter, Council shall direct the method of voting on any resolution to be determined at a meeting. Voting at a meeting may be by a show of hands or by poll. If voting is to be by poll, this may be taken at the meeting or by postal ballot.

Voting on any poll may be by electronic means if Council so decides. Council's decision on the method of voting must be included in the Notice of the Meeting.

- 12.6 In the event that a decision as to the method of voting has to be taken at the meeting itself, this decision shall be taken by the Chairman.
- 12.7 Prior to a vote by show of hands or before the result of the vote is declared at any meeting, the Chairman, or 20 members present in person or by proxy and standing, may request that a poll be taken. In such a situation, the Chairman shall ask The Secretary to make arrangements for a poll to be taken:
- (a) immediately; or
 - (b) at a reconvened meeting to be held at a place, day and time fixed by the Chairman; or
 - (c) by a postal and/or electronic ballot of all members of the Society.
- A decision to take a poll at a reconvened meeting or by ballot of the membership shall not prevent other business specified in the Notice of Meeting from being completed. The request for a poll may be withdrawn at any time up to when the poll is taken or, in the case of a poll conducted by postal and/or electronic ballot, at any time up to the issue of voting papers or an invitation to vote.
- 12.8 No poll may be taken on any question affecting the chairman of the meeting or any adjournment of the meeting.
- 12.9 All polls shall be conducted in accordance with Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1.

Postal and/or electronic ballots

- 12.10 In the case of any poll conducted by postal and/or electronic ballot of the members, Council may appoint an independent scrutineer to ensure the proper conduct of the ballot. Council may also send a note to accompany the voting paper or invitation to vote to explain the meaning and effect of any proposal.
- 12.11 Where the Chairman at a meeting decides that a poll should take place by postal and/or electronic ballot, the voting papers or an invitation to vote must be issued within 60 days of the date of the meeting. The result of a poll conducted under Bye-law 12.7 (c) shall be declared by the President of the Society at such place, date and time as they fix as if it had been declared at the meeting itself.

Voting by show of hands and at a poll called to be held at a meeting or at a reconvened meeting

- 12.12 Only individual members and the appointed representatives of member organisations are entitled to vote on a show of hands at a meeting or at any poll arising from a decision taken at a meeting that is held immediately or at a reconvened meeting in accordance with Bye-law 12.7.
- 12.13 Where voting takes place by show of hands it shall be conducted in a manner that shall enable the Chairman to ascertain the sense of the majority of those present and voting and to determine whether a resolution is carried or lost.

Appointment of proxies

- 12.14 (a) Where the Notice of Meeting provides that a poll shall be taken at a meeting, an individual member or representative of a member organisation may cast their own vote or appoint a proxy to vote on their behalf. Proxies must be appointed in accordance with the Regulations for the conduct of the poll made under Bye-law 20.1. Those Regulations shall provide that the proxy may be
- i. another individual member of the Society;
 - ii. an alternative appointed representative of a member organisation; or
 - iii. the President of the Society or Chairman of the meeting where different and must be notified to the Secretary at the RHS Office or such other address as he may provide not later than mid-day on the Friday preceding the day of the meeting.

(b) Where the Notice of Meeting provides that a poll shall be taken by postal ballot and/or electronic ballot prior to the Meeting, or the Chairman at a meeting calls for a poll to be taken by postal and/or electronic ballot under Bye-law 12.7(c), an individual member or representative of a member organisation may cast their own vote or appoint the President of the Society to act as their proxy in accordance with Regulations for the conduct of the poll made under Bye-law 20.1. Those Regulations shall provide that the appointment of proxy must be notified to The Secretary at the RHS Office or such other address as he may provide not later than the day on which the poll closes.

- 12.15 The appointment of a proxy may not be revoked once notification has been delivered to the RHS Office.

- 12.16 A vote given by a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the death of the individual member or a member organisation ceasing to exist before the date of the General Meeting or the close of the poll.

Objections and questions about the validity of any vote or poll

- 12.17 Objections and questions about the validity of any vote or poll must be raised with the President, or Chairman of the meeting if different, before the result of the vote or poll is declared. The President or Chairman's ruling on the objection or question shall be final.

Equality of votes

- 12.18 In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the President, or Chairman of the meeting where different, may use a second or casting vote.

Decisions by majority voting

- 12.19 All decisions, whether on a show of hands or by poll, shall be determined by a majority of those voting except where a larger majority is required under the Society's Charter or by statute.

Adjournment

- 12.20 The Chairman may adjourn any meeting to a different place, day and time, but no business shall be conducted at the reconvened meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. If a meeting is adjourned for more than 21 days, notice of the reconvened meeting shall be given to the whole membership of the Society by the placement of an advertisement in one or more national newspapers. If a meeting is adjourned for more than 75 days, notice shall be provided to every member of the Society.

Minutes

- 12.21 Minutes of the meeting shall be taken and kept in a book kept for the purpose.

Validity of a General Meeting

- 12.22 No defect in the convening or conduct of a General Meeting shall invalidate the proceedings at that meeting.

13 Member Resolutions

- 13.1 Any member wishing to propose a resolution at an AGM must deliver written notice of this to The Secretary at the RHS Office by 1 March (or the last working day before that day) preceding the date of the AGM. The Notice must contain the words of the resolution and may also contain a statement from the member in support of the resolution. The Notice must be signed by at least 24 other members of the Society indicating their support for the resolution, one of whom must also be shown as seconding the motion.

- 13.2 Only members of the Society that have held continuous membership for 12 months prior to the date for submission of a member resolution may sign a Notice of Resolution.
- 13.3 The Secretary shall arrange for the member's resolution and the statement in support of the resolution to be included in the Notice of the AGM. However, Council shall have the right to refuse to permit a proposed resolution to be included in that Notice if it
 - (a) does not address or reflect a matter that is relevant or applicable to the Society;
 - (b) is similar in effect to a resolution proposed at any of the three AGMs prior to the date for submission of notice;
 - (c) is so ambiguous as to be incapable of being carried into effect;
 - (d) is defamatory or proposed in bad faith.
- 13.4 Council may also refuse to accept a statement in support of a resolution if it exceeds 500 words in length.
- 13.5 Council may itself despatch a statement of up to 500 words commenting on the resolution with the Notice of the AGM. This statement may include guidance on how Council considers members should cast their vote on the resolution.
- 13.6 A member's resolution must be formally proposed and seconded at the AGM by the members shown in the Notice of Resolution as proposing and seconding the resolution or, in their absence, another member of the Society. Only resolutions formally proposed at the AGM shall be discussed and voted upon.
- 13.7 A written Notice of Resolution is not required if a member is seeking to move an amendment to a proposed resolution already appearing in the Notice of an AGM except as provided at Bye-law 22.3 (Alteration of Bye-laws).
- 13.8 The decision of a General Meeting on a member's resolution is only binding on the trustees where the resolution relates to a matter that the Charter or these Bye-laws require to be determined at a General Meeting.

14 Member Statements

- 14.1 A member may send a statement on any matter relevant to the objects of the Society or to the conduct of its business to the President of the Society. In the event that the member does not receive a response to their statement within three months or is dissatisfied with the response received, they shall have the right to publish a Written Statement on the matter in the Society's Journal provided it is signed by the member and 99 other members of the Society. All members signing a Written Statement must have been members of the Society for at least 12 months prior to the date the statement is delivered. The Written Statement must be delivered to The Secretary at the RHS Office who, subject to the provisions of Bye-law 14.2, shall arrange for its publication within three months of receipt.
- 14.2 Council shall have the right to refuse publication of the Written Statement if it
 - (a) deals with a different matter from that previously raised by the member;
 - (b) exceeds 500 words in length;
 - (c) is defamatory or submitted in bad faith.
- 14.3 Council shall also have the right to publish a response to the Written Statement of up to 500 words in the same edition of the Journal.

15 Auditors

- 15.1 On the recommendation of Council, a firm of chartered accountants shall be appointed at each AGM to act as the Society's auditors for the following financial year.
- 15.2 Council shall determine the remuneration of the auditors.
- 15.3 In the event of the position of auditor becoming vacant for any reason, Council shall have power to appoint another auditor to serve until the date of the next AGM.

16 Property of the Society

- 16.1 The Society's property and funds may only be used to secure or further the objects of the RHS.
- 16.2 However, this Bye-law shall not prevent members of the Society from competing for and receiving from the Society prizes in money or other awards or medals or from receiving a bursary, seeds, plants, publications etc. The Bye-law shall also not prevent Council from making payments to any members for expenses incurred in connection with the business of the Society or work done for or services provided to the Society.
- 16.3 Council may produce Regulations for the financial management of the Society under Bye-law 20.1.

17 Payment of Members of Council

- 17.1 Members of Council may not be paid for their work as a trustee.
- 17.2 Members of Council may receive the same benefits as those generally enjoyed by other members of the Society.
- 17.3 In accordance with an Order of the Commissioners granted under Section 26 of the Charities Act 1993 on 20 April 2005, Council may grant a member of Council a benefit from the Society in his or her capacity as a beneficiary of the Society, provided
 - (a) the individual concerned is not present when a decision is taken to grant or award a benefit and does not seek to influence the grant, award or review of a benefit in any manner whatsoever;
 - (b) the decision to grant or award a benefit is recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which the decision is taken or in some other record kept for the purpose; and
 - (c) the existence and value of the benefit is recorded in the Society's register of interests and disclosed in the Society's annual report and accounts.
- 17.4 In accordance with an Order of the Commissioners granted under Section 26 of the Charities Act 1993 on 20 April 2005, Council may also enter into a contract with any individual member of Council for the supply of goods or services to the Society, provided
 - (a) it is necessary to ensure good administration of the charity;
 - (b) the remuneration is reasonable in relation to the services of the charity and the income of the charity;
 - (c) before doing so, Council is satisfied that it is in the interests of the Society to contract with that individual rather than someone who has no connection with the Society;
 - (d) in reaching its decision, Council balances the advantages and disadvantages of contracting with the individual and is satisfied that the remuneration or other sum to be paid is reasonable in all the circumstances;

- (e) the member of Council seeking to provide goods or services is not present when a decision is taken to award a contract or when performance under that contract is reviewed and does not seek to influence the decision to award a contract or the review of performance in any manner whatsoever;
 - (f) the decision to grant or award a contract is recorded in the minutes of the meeting at which the decision is taken or in some other record kept for the purpose; and
 - (g) the existence and value of the benefit is recorded in the Society's register of interests and disclosed in the Society's annual report and accounts.
- 17.5 For the purpose of Bye-laws 17.3 and 17.4 "member of Council" includes any person, firm or company connected to the member of Council seeking benefit from the Society or being invited to supply goods or services to the Society. The requirements of Bye-law 17.4 also include contracts for the supply of goods or services to any company in which the Society:
- holds more than 50% of the shares; or
 - controls more than 50% of the voting rights; or
 - has the right to appoint one or more directors to the Board of the company.
- 17.6 Council may, from time to time, agree standard terms and conditions for the supply of goods and/or services from a third party (who may also be a Council member or someone connected to that member, provided that the member does not vote on the resolution under this Bye-law). Once agreed, Council may grant authority to a decision-making Committee for this purpose which may execute any number of individual contracts within the agreed terms and conditions provided
- (a) the aggregate sum payable to an individual member (or connected person) shall not exceed the arrangements specified by Council;
 - (b) the power of the decision-making committee to enter into contracts under this Bye-law shall either be reviewed annually or shall cease after 12 months if no resolution to renew or grant new authority has passed; and
 - (c) the decision-making committee has regard to the provisions for managing potential conflicts of interest set out in Bye-law 17.4.
- 17.7 A decision on any other benefit that may be granted or awarded to a member of Council in their capacity as a beneficiary of the Society under this Bye-law shall be reserved to Council.
- 17.8 Bye-law 17.3 does not limit Council's power to use the Society's funds to meet any necessary and reasonable expenses that they incur in the course of carrying out their responsibilities as trustees of the Society.

18 Financial Statements and Accounting

- 18.1 Council shall be responsible for:
- keeping accounting records for the Society;
 - the preparation of an annual report and financial statements of account;
 - the auditing of the financial statements.
- 18.2 A summary of the annual financial statements shall be sent to every member of the Society together with details of how a full copy of the financial statements can be obtained. The full financial statements shall be presented to members at the AGM.

19 The Seal

- 19.1 Every deed or document to which the Seal needs to be applied must be sealed in the presence of, and if necessary signed by, one or more members of Council or the Director General, the Director of Finance or The Secretary as may be required.

20 Regulations

- 20.1 Council has power to make Regulations for the management of the Society and for the conduct of Society business, including, but not limited to:
- (a) application to become a member of the Society;
 - (b) membership rights and benefits;
 - (c) consideration of complaints about the conduct of members;
 - (d) admission and use of the Society's Gardens, Halls, Libraries, Conferences and Shows;
 - (e) the conduct and administration of elections to the office of President, Treasurer and Council;
 - (f) the conduct and administration of polls including postal and/or electronic ballots on resolutions to be determined at an AGM or a Special General Meeting;
 - (g) the conduct of meetings of Council and committees;
 - (h) methods of making decisions in order to deal with cases of urgency when a meeting of Council is impractical;
 - (i) the custody of documents including the authentication of documents;
 - (j) the delegation of powers to committees and to staff and the preparation of job descriptions and person specifications for the President, Treasurer, members of Council and of the committees reporting to Council;
 - (k) financial management;
 - (l) the establishment of regional and international branches and specialist groups and the manner in which their business shall be conducted.
- 20.2 Copies of all Regulations made under Bye-law 20.1 shall be published on the Society's website and made available to members in written form on request.
- 20.3 Council may not make Regulations that are inconsistent with anything in the Charter and Bye-laws of the Society.

21 Notices

- 21.1 Unless provided otherwise in the Charter or these Bye-laws, in any case where a Notice of a Meeting or an event is required to be given to members of the Society, this may be delivered in person or sent by post or electronic communication to the member's last notified address. In all cases, a member shall be deemed to have received any Notice sent by the Society on the third day after it is delivered in person or sent. If the issue of notices is spread over a number of days, notice shall be deemed to have been received on the third day after the final day of issue.
- 21.2 The accidental failure to provide a member with a Notice of a Meeting or the non-receipt of such a Notice by any member shall not invalidate anything done at the meeting to which the Notice related.
- 21.3 Where a member is required to submit a Notice to the Society, including a requisition or nomination paper, this may be delivered in person, sent by post or delivered by electronic means provided, in the case of the latter, there is means of authenticating the signature of any such Notice where a signature is required.

22 Alteration of the Society's Bye-laws

- 22.1 Council may revoke, amend or add to the Society's Bye-laws at any time. However, no changes shall take effect until they have been confirmed (either with or without modification) at an AGM or Special Meeting.
- 22.2 Notification that proposed changes to the Bye-laws will be considered at an AGM or Special Meeting, together with details of Council's proposed changes, must be provided to every member at the same time as the Notice of Meeting.

- 22.3 Any member wishing to make an amendment to the changes to the Bye-laws proposed by Council must submit details of the amendment in writing to The Secretary at the RHS Office, seven clear days before the AGM or Special Meeting at which the changes to the Bye-laws are due to be considered. Provided this requirement is met, the Chairman of the meeting shall allow the member to put that proposed amendment forward for discussion and vote at the AGM or Special Meeting.
- 22.4 A majority of those present and voting at the AGM or Special Meeting must approve all changes to the Bye-laws.

23 Definitions and Notes

In these Bye-laws the following terms shall have the meanings shown:

Address – in relation to electronic communications includes any number or address provided by a member for such communications

AGM – the Society's Annual General Meeting of members

Bye-laws – these Bye-laws

Casual vacancy – a vacancy that arises in the office of President or Treasurer or for an ordinary member of Council before the completion of the expected term for which the individual holder of the position was elected

Charter – the Royal Charter and Supplemental Charter of the RHS

Clear days before a meeting – the number of calendar days excluding the day of the meeting and the day that a Notice is deemed to be received by a member or the Society

Co-opted member of Council – an individual member of the Society whom Council co-opts to serve on Council

Council – the body in which the governance of the Society is vested in accordance with the Charter and Bye-laws

Decision-making committee – includes any committee to which Council has delegated decision-making powers or sub-committee to which the committee has further delegated those powers

Director General – the person appointed by Council to perform the duties of the Director General of the Society whether temporary or otherwise and by whatever name called from time to time

Electronic communication – a communication transmitted by means of a telecommunications system within the meaning of the Telecommunications Act 1984 or by other means while in an electronic form

Executive Director – executive director of the Society whether temporary or otherwise and by whatever name called from time to time. At the time of adoption of these Bye-laws, the Executive Directors of the Society are:

Commercial Director
Director of Finance
Director of Horticulture, Science and Education
Director of Marketing and Development
Shows Director

Financial Statements – the Society's accounts

Journal – The Garden or any successor publication

Member – any individual, corporate body, association or organisation who or which is a member of the Society in accordance with these Bye-laws.
At the time of adoption of these Bye-laws, Council has agreed that the categories of membership to which members are assigned should be:

Affiliated Society member	Associate of Honour member
Associate member	Concessionary Life member
Family Associate	Family member
Honorary Fellow member	Individual member
Joint Concessionary Life member	Joint Life member
Life member	Schools member
Under 25 member

Member of Council – a member of the RHS Council. For the purposes of Bye-laws 17.1 and 17.2, a member of Council includes any child, parent, grandchild, grandparent, brother, sister or spouse of the member of Council or any person living with the member of Council as his or her partner

Member organisation – any corporate body, association or organisation that is a member of the Society

Member Resolution – a proposal or recommendations that the Society should adopt a particular course of action or stance on an issue and submitted to an Annual General Meeting in accordance with the requirements of Bye-law 13

Members – collectively the individuals and member organisations who or which are a member of the Society

Notice – any notice that is required to be sent to a member or to the Society by these Bye-laws or Regulations made under Bye-law 20

Ordinary Member of Council – a member of the Society elected from time to time by the members as a member of the Council of the RHS in accordance with Bye-law 6

Person, firm or company connected with a member of Council – a firm or company of which a member of Council is:

- a partner;
- an employee;
- a consultant;
- a director; or
- a shareholder, unless the shares of the company are listed on a recognised stock exchange and the trustee holds less than 1% of the issued capital

Postal ballot – a vote of all members taken through the post

President – the person elected or appointed to the office of President of the Society in accordance with Bye-law 5

Quorum – the minimum number of persons entitled to be at a meeting that must be present for the meeting to take place

Regulations – regulations for the management and conduct of Society business made by Council under Bye-law 20

RHS – The Royal Horticultural Society

RHS Office – the principal administrative office of the Society which at the time of adoption of these Bye-laws is 80 Vincent Square, London, SW1P 2PE

Seal – the common Seal of the Society

The Secretary – the person appointed by the Council to perform the duties of The Secretary of the Society whether temporary or otherwise and by whatever name called from time to time

Society – The Royal Horticultural Society

Special General Meeting – a meeting of the members of the Society other than the Annual General Meeting

Treasurer – the person elected or appointed to the office of Treasurer in accordance with Bye-law 5

Trustee – a member of the Society elected, appointed or co-opted to serve as a member of Council.

