

See if you can find a flower in the garden to match each of these shapes. Don't forget that they come in all sorts of colours too, so see how many different colours you can find as well.

Have a look and see which kinds of insects you find in each flower. Do some kinds of insects seem to prefer a particular shape or colour of flower?

Which shape and colour of flower is your favourite?

