Masdevallia Joan Ragan appeared in Orch. Rev. Suppl. 114(1268): 8 (2006). Please change the pollen parent to read Masd. Rising Sun, and the originator to read Orchid Zone.

Odontocidium Crow Charmer. Please correct the entries in Orch. Rev. Suppl. 113(1266): 9 (2005) & 114(1268): 13 (2006). The parentage should read Onc. Dark Charmer x Odcdm. Crowborough.

The originator of Paph. Velvet Rose was I. Hiyama.

REGISTRAR'S NOTES

Brassolaeliocattleya Marjorie Frey, was registered as Lc. Rembrandt x Blc. Wake Island in 1957. Several growers have observed that the seed parent used was probably Cattleya Rembrandt (C. elongata x C. labiata), rather than Lc. Rembrandt (Lc. Clarice x Lc. James Goodier), since the plant habit and other features reflect similarities with C. elongata. The register has been changed and annotated. This was noted in Orch. Rev. Suppl. 109(1241): New Orchid Hybrids p. 16 (Sept. 2001) but was overlooked in the Register.

Dendrobium Saraswathi Giri. This grex epithet erroneously appears as Sarasvarthi Giri in SLOH 1971-1975: 157, and in Orch. Hyb. Singapore 1893-2003: 246 (2005) as Sarasvarthi Giri. Dr. M. Saleem of TBGRI, Kerala, kindly supplied the following information: Saraswathi Giri was the wife of a Late Indian President (1969-1974) who's husband also previously held the post of acting president, vice-president of India and Governor of Kerala state in India. The name Saraswathi appears in Vedic books as Sarasvati, but currently in India the form Saraswathi is used as a personal name. In Hindu mythology, Sarasvati is a goddess of rivers and is considered to be connected with the heavenly waters, controlling the treasures of which she is queen and which the waters are capable of endowing, namely intellect and immortality. According to the Rig Veda, she is also the patron devi (god) of singers. In some parts of India, Saraswathi is the 'god of knowledge'.

Oncidium varicosum 'Baldin' and Onc. insigne

Onc. insigne (Rolfe) Christenson in Orchids (AOS) 71(10): 925-926 (2002), has been previously included in or confused with Onc. varicosum Lindl. usually as 'Baldin', it is also seen as 'Baldwin', 'Baldin's Variety' and var. baldin hort. The parentage Onc. varicosum x dasystyle has been suggested, but 'Baldin' is not a hybrid, and breeds true from seed. Originating from coastal Brazil it has been distributed in Europe as seedlings from nurseries in Germany and Holland. The flower size is variable, although the colouration is constant. Additional illustrations in Zelenko, Orchids, Pict. Encyc. 2002: 39, and Orch. Rev. 114(1268): 118 (March 2006).

The following grexes in Oncidium were registered with Oncidium varicosum 'Baldin' as a parent which has now been changed to Onc. insigne in the register: Golden Viper (1992), Islander's Paradise (1991), Islander's Secret (1991), Mulattas' Dancing (2000), Rachel Lee (1974), Samba de Ouro (2000).

Paphiopedilum Black Flame, registered September 2005, Orch. Rev. Suppl. 113(1266): 9 (2005). This grex epithet was used in Orch. Rev. 99(1172): viii (June 1991) for Paph. Red Maude x Paph. fairieanum, but in SLOH 1991-1995: 583 and subsequent usage this grex has been referred to as Paph. Black Magic. Hence the epithet Black Flame has been re-used for Paph. Flame Arrow x Paph. Black Currants.
