Contents

REGULARS
International news 198–203
RHS Awards 238–253
Forthcoming events 254–255

FEATURES
Future-proofing orchid conservation
A report on the findings, proposals and resolutions discussed at the sixth International Orchid Conservation Congress held in Hong Kong.
AMY HINSLEY & SUSANNE MASTERS 204–209

Showy white Dendrobium species of the Philippines
In praise of the magnificent white-flowered Dendrobium species from the Philippine archipelago.
JIM COOTES 210–215

Ecuadorian treasures
Profiling orchid highlights spotted in the wild in Ecuador that await visitors to next year’s WOC.
CLARE & JOHAN HERMANS 216–223

Maxillaria for windowsills
Some species in the genus offer showy and fragrant flowers that are amenable to cultivation in the home.
ED SCHMIDT 224–227

The identity of spotted Vanda denisoniana
Spotted and marked forms of Vanda denisoniana are actually natural hybrids, best referred to as V. × bebrica.
MARTIN R MOTES, LAUREN M GARDINER & DAVID L ROBERTS 228–233

Studying Specklinia
An interview with researcher Adam Karremans about his PhD project studying the pollination of these fruit-fly magnets.
SANNE VAN GAMMEREN 234–237

Singapore’s Orchid Extravaganza
Highlights from the Orchid Society of South East Asia biennial show held within the Singapore Garden Festival 2016 and forming an important part of the Orchid Extravaganza.
LIZ JOHNSON 256–258

Index
To the four issues of The Orchid Review published in 2016 259–263

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS
We welcome suggestions for future features, but please contact us first with a synopsis of your idea. Features will preferably be accompanied by high resolution digital images – of at least 300 dpi. Good quality transparencies or colour prints are also acceptable.

© Royal Horticultural Society 2016
Registered Charity No. 222879 / SC038262