26 July to 31 August Summer holidays: The Great Garden Quest

Sponsored by Witan Investment Trust Drop-in art and craft activities for families EVERY WEEK DAY

11am - 1pm and 2pm - 4pm

MONDAYS - Magical Map making

Tolkien's books were also famous for his highly illustrated maps. Create your own to guide you through the obstacles and dangers of Rosemoor in search of the Dragon!

TUESDAYS - Crowns, Headdresses and Wizard's Hats

Cut out and decorate the perfect mystical headwear for your summer Great Garden Quest.

WEDNESDAYS – Willow Spiders, Swords and Wands

Make your very own willow Spider of the woods to take home, or create a wand or sword to help you on your Dragon Quest!

THURSDAYS - Treasure Boxes

Make your box and then colour it in or stick in gems and treasures. Be sure to draw a secure lock to keep your jewels safe!

FRIDAYS – Potions and Perfumes

Create your own magical potion from petals and leaves. Crush them up and say the magic words.

Tuesday 29 July Entertainingly Different's "The Ouest"

11am, 1pm and 3pm

An interactive, family friendly promenade performance by Rob Pudner and Entertainingly Different. A magical journey, where you'll come face to face with a host of enchanting characters who will be your guides for this mystical Quest. But the question is, will you and your fellow travellers be able to find all the clues and solve the riddle before the sands of time run out? Event repeated again on Friday 29 August.

Thursday 31 July Shadow Puppet Workshop with Armchair Puppet Theatre

11am - 4pm.

Come along and make your very own shadow puppet at our drop-in workshop then return at 2.30pm for a rehearsal before taking part in the afternoon performance at 3pm which is free and open to all.

Tuesday 5 August Middle Earth Dressing Up Day

11am - 1pm and 2pm - 4pm.

Come along and dress yourself up as one of your favourite Middle Earth characters and pose for a picture outside of our Halfling House as you ready yourself for your Journey into Middle Earth.

Special guest appearance by Gandalf – the great wizard himself!

Thursday 7 August Stage Fighting and Swordplay

11am - 1pm and 2pm - 4pm.

Take up the sword and join the battle for Middle Earth. Learn to fight with stunt man Mark Ruddick (Captain America, Thor 2, Kickass 2) and create your own clashing sword fight. You will learn how a safe film set fight is created and have the chance to practice real stage sword play. With camouflage make up and free face painting too.

Monday 11 August Creepy Crawlies Day

11am - 1pm and 2pm - 4pm.

Well known across Devon for his weird and wonderful collection of exotic spiders, snakes, insects and lizards, Joe de Witt Vine of Reptobug will have creepy crawlies from all over the world for you to see and touch if you dare. Meet some of Joe's favourites and learn about where they come from and how they live in the wild.

Wednesday 13 August Small Wonder: Puppet Show by Armchair Puppet Theatre

11.30am and 2.30pm

A long time ago (well, today actually) in a colourfully painted wooden puppet theatre, intricately made glove, rod and shadow puppets tell the story of a Mayor's quest for a 'wonder never seen before by human eyes' in order to appease his demanding Queen. Back by popular demand this performance is a delight for children (young and old)!
