

A Garden For All Seasons

There's something for everyone year-round at RHS Garden Rosemoor. In addition to garden highlights that change every month, we host a multitude of events from the entertaining to the educational, from garden walks and talks, to family fun days, art and craft workshops/exhibitions, food, plant and craft fairs and even theatrical and music events, so whatever your taste there is sure to be something going on for visitors!

Family Fun

Weekends and school holidays are packed full of fun for families at Rosemoor. Create your own family adventures around the garden with our trails and play areas. Get stuck into garden-themed art and craft workshops or become a budding gardener as you sow and grow along with us.

Food & Drink

Delicious seasonal menus, full of quality garden and local produce, prepared by our Head Chef and his team. Freshly baked cakes and scones available everyday. In the Wisteria Tea Room you can experience a delicious afternoon tea served on a high tea stand (open April – September) or eat alfresco with one of our picnic lunch bags available from the main restaurant and tea room.

Shopping

Browse and buy from our vast range of high-quality plants including many RHS Award of Garden Merit and 'Perfect for Pollinators' plants. Find a wide range of gifts, books, tableware and garden accessories in the shop.

Look out in the events programme for the Plant Centre's 'Spotlight on Plants' where specialist nurseries will be giving advice on various plant species.
