Notes for Guidance

1. The completed form should be sent to the International Orchid Hybrid Registrar, 19 Longleat Crescent, Chilwell, Nottingham NG9 5ET, UK
2. Only one form should be completed for each hybrid. Accepted registrations will be confirmed by a copy of the entry made in the registration database. It will help if you can supply an e-mail address so that queries may be dealt with rapidly.
3. Applications may be submitted using photocopies or scanned copies of the application form. Applications may be submitted by post or e-mail to orcreg@rhs.org.uk. When submitting your application by e-mail, please send a scanned form as an e-mail attachment. If this proves not possible, then write the details of your application in an e-mail in the same order as on the application form.
4. The registration fee of UK £10.00 is payable once your application for orchid registration is accepted. Once accepted you will receive an invoice from the Orchid Registrar and will then be able to pay by cheque or by online credit card payment. Full instructions on making payment will be provided with your invoice. Payment in US$ by cheque is possible for ten or more registrations, and the fee is US$16.50 for each registration.
5. A photograph (print, slide or digital image) is a good way to support any application, but is required for primary crosses (those between species) and new hybrid genera. The image will be archived by the RHS. Please indicate if you are willing to allow use of the image in RHS publications, including online publication on a website. Alternatively, reference may be made to a published image.
6. Details of the rules governing the acceptance of grex, Group and cultivar epithets may be found in the current edition of the International Code of Nomenclature for Cultivated Plants (ICNCP). A summary is provided in the introduction to the Sander's List of Orchid Hybrids 3-Year Addendum 2014–2016.
7. The orchid hybrid register currently follows the generic limits proposed in the volumes of Genera Orchidacearum. However, applications may be made using genera of the applicant's choice. For example, Brassolaeliocattleya and Potinara instead of Rhyncholaeliocattleya and Rhyncattleanthe, or Laeliocattleya instead of Cattleya or Cattlianthe. The hybrid will be assigned to an appropriate genus upon acceptance.
8. The register can be accessed online at: <http://apps.rhs.org.uk/horticulturaldatabase/orchidregister/orchidregister.asp>
9. In the event of errors occurring with the registration, due to mistakes on the application form, illegibility, typographical errors, etc., on the part of the applicant or the registration staff, please contact the registrar as soon as possible. The registration staff will be pleased to correct any entry without further charge.

What we do with your personal data (Personal Data Statement)

In completing and submitting this form you are supplying the Royal Horticultural Society, as International Cultivar Registration Authority (ICRA), with information that identifies you ("personal data") unless the registration is submitted in the name of an organisation, such as a commercial nursery.

By registering your plant with the RHS ICRA you agree to:

- The RHS ICRA retaining your personal data (including your name and contact details) on our plant registration database
- This information being retained as a permanent record of your registration
- The publication of your abbreviated name in print and online in connection with ICRA registration. (Details of your address are never published in any format)

As part of the registration process, you may supply personal data about other people involved in the origin and development of the plant to show lineage. This information will be retained by the RHS as ICRA but will not be published.

The ICRA undertakes to hold all such personal data securely, in line with the RHS Privacy Statement (<https://www.rhs.org.uk/Privacy>).

I agree to the terms laid out above:
