

Donnacha Cahill is a west of Ireland sculptor specialising in Bronze and Steel. A Fine-Art graduate, Donnacha is renowned for his ability to create sculpture that tells a story but also allows the viewer to interpret the work with their own narrative. Donnacha has created work for both public and private collections. His work is highly collectible and is currently in private collections across the globe including countries such as, Canada, Switzerland, The USA, Italy, Holland, New Zealand, England, Germany and France.. This is Donnacha's second time exhibiting at Chelsea in the 4e Ranelagh Gardens

Donnacha believes in creating work that acts as a vessel to inspire and tell stories. He is inspired by his every day surrounding and observations from his home in the west of Ireland

donnachacahill.com

donnachacahill@yahoo.com

00353863082532

